

STREET SURVIVAL SEMINAR

A Two Day Training Event

The Street Survival Seminar is the only course addressing officer safety from two perspectives:

“The Fatal Four” – Police officers are at risk both physically and psychologically in four particular categories. We will examine in detail, the four most common causes of Law Enforcement Fatalities.

1. Felonious Assaults
2. Vehicle/Traffic Related Incidents
3. Physical Conditioning
4. Emotional Health

“Our Natural Instincts” – Understanding how our natural instincts can be both an asset and a liability for the modern law enforcement officer. Training In:

1. Hyper-Fight: Over-reaction in a Physical Confrontation
2. Flight/Freeze: Cognitive Deterioration in High Stress Incidents
3. Adapt and Reason: A Vital Skill for Today's Law Enforcers
4. The Conflict: Modern Training vs. Our Innate Survival Instincts

Presented in a very dynamic format by highly experienced instructors, the seminar utilizes video, meaningful statistics, case studies and interesting personal experiences to impress upon attendees that their personal safety and career survival truly is up to the them. This course is constantly evolving, incorporating current events and relevant supporting material that meet the professional needs of Law Enforcement.

Topics Discussed:

- The role of the unconscious mind in officer safety
- Reality of violent encounters and tactical options
- Visualization and Preparation
- Active shooter considerations and use of force tactics
- Traffic stop strategies and squad car positioning
- Pursuit issues and consequences (emotional, criminal, civil)
- Risk Management: Roadway hazards
- Street interviews, body language and proxemics
- Emotional survival and a healthy off-duty perspective
- Pre-attack indicators and Deception cues

*This course is two 8-hour days